

PCT

Description

To provide routine nursing care and services that support the care delivered to patients requiring long-term acute or transitional restorative care, in accordance with the established nursing care procedures and as directed by the supervisor.

Qualifications

1. Nursing assistant experience in an critical care hospital setting is preferred.
2. Certified Nursing Assistant and/or Patient Care Technician certification is preferred.
3. Must be able to read, write, and speak English fluently.
4. Must be able to maintain patient confidentiality and assist licensed nursing staff with ADLs, Vital Signs, and reports any change in condition to the patients licensed nurse immediately.
5. Must have BLS certification at all times.

Employment Type

Full Time and PRN available

Date posted

July 2, 2019

Button

APPLY